

Why Saturn In Kabbalah

The Rabbi's state the Leviathan they have created in the astral grid of the planet is designed to weigh down on people energetically and close them off spiritually. This is why they use Saturn to connect this into. As stated the Kabbalah cube is the Leviathan grid and the symbol of Saturn and the earth. The Jews go to Synagogue on the day of Saturn to do their Torah rituals and connect this into the day the energies of Saturn are the strongest. All of their churches, mosques and synagogues and symbols are designed to connect into the energy of Saturn. If one feels the energy of the enemy its always heavy and toxic.

Saturn rules blockages in astrology the blockages in the soul, the energy body, the psyche and such that keep people from spiritually ascending their consciousness and cause them sickness and death. The purpose of the Jewish witchcraft of the Torah is to keep Gentiles bound and spiritually dormant to gain and maintain control. Think of how this affects people Saturn transits as well.

That was definitely inspired by the Gods, I was doing qigong then meditating and it all jumped into my head during those, how to write it out and everything. (If anyone is wondering what it is, the link is in my signature here.)

Jupiter square can be started Nov 8, and any Thursday after, this can help people who are going through rough Saturn transits. Also keeping your energy high throughout the day, HPS Maxine posted a sermon before (I can't find it to link) on doing 5 times through the day something to keep energy up, yoga, qigong, breathing exercises, mantras, and so on. Saturn is strong in Capricorn now, so its transits will be even stronger than the past 6 years when it was in its neutral signs.

Keep your aura and soul clean. This is extremely important and it is easy and only takes a few minutes. Just sit in a relaxed position. Focus on your aura and visualize a brilliant light descending from your head all the way down through and out your feet, pushing dark energy out. You can use a lamp to help you visualize with your eyes closed, but do NOT ever use LED lights or light bulbs. They will ruin your eyesight. Even through closed eyes. Use a soft white bulb.

Do the cleaning 3 times for each session. When you clean your aura, all kinds of nasties come off. Then, other filth surfaces. Chains are bindings and obstacles, there can be thought forms, all sorts of filth holding you back from previous lifetimes.

This most important exercise should be done daily, at least once a day.

Saturn rules old age, loss and death. Few people really look to the loss that comes through age. Loss of health, loss of senses, loss of beauty, friends, relatives, and others die. Old age is vicious and cruel. Elderly people go to nursing homes with nothing to look forward to other than death. Most people really don't see this or a lot of other related things.

Having your soul and aura thoroughly cleaned is very important in performing the Magnum Opus.

After cleaning your aura, it is important to put some positive energy into your soul with a protective affirmation, such as "I am always safe, secure, protected and fine, in every way and at all times." State this 3 times while visualizing yourself engulfed in the light. Also know, each of us has our own fate. The fates of others are on their own souls, such as a loved one dying. Cleaning your own soul won't prevent tragedy in another. Though, you can clean the soul of a loved one through visualization. A Demon helper should be present for this. This can be complicated.

The sad thing is, there are people who are disabled and such due to being exploited and abused through overwork, slavery and related situations in past lives. For example, someone who can't walk for whatever reason in this life may have been forced to stand or walk endlessly in a former lifetime. He/she may still (unknowingly) be hanging onto this. This sort of thing is a defense mechanism, in that the person who cannot walk cannot be forced to stand. This stays on the soul unless it is cleaned.

Sadly, many people take things out on themselves, rather than on what the real problem is, such as slavery and overwork.

These oh so pristine New Age people don't understand why many often encounter misfortune when empowering their souls through yoga, meditation and related. In a lot of cases, nasties from past lives will manifest.

Keeping one's soul clean on a daily basis helps to protect one's self and also stops the bad so-called "karma" from manifesting. In addition, the daily cleaning of one's aura also prevents nasties from getting a foothold in this lifetime.

Affirmations should always be stated following each cleaning session.
